BEHIND THE LIST

Five questions for a list that's already written

Every list in the books has a backstory the list itself doesn't tell. These are the questions I'm using to dig it up. Pick a list you wrote a while ago, yours or one from the books, and answer them.

The list: 30 _____

1. What was happening in your life the week you wrote it?

2. Which item would you cut or rewrite today, and why?

3. Which item turned out to be the most true?

4. Who were you really writing it for?

5. What's item #31, the one that didn't make it?
